Test Pilot Soars Rocket Plane to 'Edge of Space'

Walker Rides X15 Craft to 255,000 Feet

EDWARDS AFB, (UPI) — Test pilot Joe Walker soared the X15 rocket plane 48½ miles high today to the edge of space, the highest ever flown in a man-contained aircraft.

Walker was launched from a B52 mother ship at 10:23 a.m. PDT and was heard to say, "I'm on my way."

The engine shut down came at 80,000 feet and he soared to the altitude of 255,000 feet.

The highest the ship had previously flown was 41 miles—the altitude mark for manned planes until today. Eventually, it may climb to 100 miles above the earth.

Representatives of the National Aeronautics and Space Association witnessed the historic flight to certify it for an official world record.

Walker's flight also was a breakthrough in high altitude control, re-entry and recovery studies leading to future flights of manned space vehicles.

Walker, 41, a veteran test pilot gunned the rocketship into a steep climb after it was dropped from under the wing of the B52 at 45,000 feet.

He pushed the 57,000-pound thrust engine to full throttle for 81 seconds as he streaked upward, then shut it off at about 150,000 feet. The momentum catapulted the X15 to its peak altitude of 255,000 feet while flying 3,645 miles an hour.

Walker surpassed his flight plan which was aimed at an altitude of at least 250,000 feet.

City Annexation Set for Tonight

Councilmanic Decision Expected On Policy for Service Stations

Annexation of land at the Palm Springs and tramway site entrances and a decision on proposed gasoline service stations on North Palm Canyon Drive will highlight the city council meeting at 7:30 p.m. today.

The councilmanic decision is slated on a policy question of whether any gasoline service stations will be permitted along the main north entrance artery, or if, so how many.

Applications, filed by M. E. Frazier, Bus Libbot, and Mrs. Sallie S. Nichols have been denied by both the planning commission and the city council, pending decision on the developmental trends of the plushly refrubished north end.

For Control

The council will consider an annexation report on Sections 24, 19, 29, and 30 in the north, recommended by the planning commission to control development and billboards.

The commission, in a unanimous resolution introduced by Glenn Watson, recommended the annexation although estimated income would not cover annexation costs because the area is within the planned northwestern city limits, would give zoning control, and control billboards before tramway development accelerates business building in the county area adjacent to the northwest city limits.

Tram and High Rise

The application of the Mt. San Jacinto Winter Park Authority for conditional use permit for construction of the tramway lower terminal building is expected to win council approval. It was approved by the planning commission, five to one abstention.

The council will hear from George Alexander and Samuel Firks concerning plans for development of the Desert Inn property. The plans, including construction of a six-story hotel unit and convention facility, may include extension of Belardo Road through the ground of the pioneer hotel.

Off-street parking standards, increase in requirements for apartment uhits, are scheculed for introduction today. The planning commission, which had recommended one and one-tenth spaces for each apartment unit, last week concurred with the councilmanic recommendation for one and a half spaces for apartments.

Economic Confab for CV Tonight

An address by Harrison A. Price, director of the Economics Research Institute, entitled "A New Lift for Coachella Valley," headlines the second annual Development Conference tonight in the Riviera Hotel.

Price is expected to present an analysis of the anticipated effect of the Mt. San Jacinto Aerial Tramway on Palm Springs and nearby desert communities.

Three other experts also will talk at the dinner program being staged jointly by the County Board of Trade and Chambers of Commerce of the Coachella Valley. They are:

Dr. Cecil L. Dunn of the Southern California Gas Co., David Porter of the Southern Pacific Railway, and William E. Warne, of the California Water Resources Agency.

Joel Stone, immediate past president of the Palm Springs Chamber, will be dinner chairman for the affair which starts at 6:30 p.m.

NEWS in BRIEF

VANDENBERG AFB, Calif. (UPI) — A satellite — possibly of the Discoverer series — was launched toward polar orbit by the Air Force Saturday but details of the shot were withheld.

Following its new pattern of releasing no information on its launchings, the Air Force said only that the satellite employed a Thor Agena B booster combination. This is similar to those used in the generally successful Discoverer series.

NEW YORK (UPI) — The most popular show of the 1961-62 Broadway season, "How to Suceed in Business Without Really Trying," Sunday night won seven of 21 Tony awards. The awards are given by the American Theater Wing for "distinguished achievement in theater."

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—A court injunction prohibiting a strike by Metropolitan Transit Authority drivers expired Sunday night, but the men reported for work this morning as usual.

A meeting was scheduled this morning by the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen to determine what action should be taken.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Kennedy told the U. S. Chamber of Commerce today the time has come for business and government to stop throwing stones at each other and pull together for a more prosperous America.

In a 23-minute address to the opening session of the chamber's 50th anniversary convention, Kennedy strongly defended his administration against charges of being antibusiness.

Drive Against OAS Apparently On in Algeria

ORAN, Algeria (UPI)—Armor-supported French security forces sealed off parts of downtown Oran today in the apparent start of an all-out drive to crush the Secret Army Organization (OAS) in its own stronghold.

With his troops splitting the city in two, Gen. Joseph Katz, Oran area commander, banned all vehicular traffic on the main streets of the downtown area and blocked pedestrians from entering strategic intersections.

The center of the city was like an armed camp. Troops supported by half-tracks and armored cars guarded barricades which carved a dividing line across the city.

Ten units of the Moslem "local force"—approximately 500 men — held positions for the first time on the fringes of the Moslem suburbs that recently have been the scenes of murderous OAS attacks.

BOAT CREWS PERISH

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (UPI) —Twenty-one persons were presumed to have died in the sinking of two ships in the northern Adriatic Sea during the weekend, the official news agency Tanjug reported today. Tanjug said one boat carried 16 persons and the other five.

Third Blast Now Ready

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The United States today expanded its atomic testing area in the Pacific and prepared to set off the third shot in its new atmospheric series.

The third blast could go off in the vicinity of Johnston Island, an atoll 800 miles from Hawaii. The two previous tests were conducted Wednesday and Friday near British-held Christmas Island.

Ships and planes have been notified to steer clear of Johnston Island, effective today. The U.S.-held atoll is scheduled to be the site of high altitude shots, which may be seen as far away as Hawaii.

The government has warned that the tests may interfere with aviation and navigation frequencies. It appeared likely the schedules of American and foreign airlines would be affected.

Dr. Harold Brown, director of research and engineering for the Defense Department, said Sunday that the high-altitude tests would range in force from less than a megaton (a million tons of TNT) to one or more megatons.

The first two tests conducted at Christmas Island were of the medium yield range, meaning less than a megaton and more than 20 kilotons (20 thousand tons of TNT).

Meantime, U.S. scientists reported that monitors are beginning to record the expected rise in radioactive fallout from last year's Russian nuclear tests. But they said levels were still far below the danger point.

The scientists indicated the amount of Strontium 90 showing up in latest preliminary milk samplings across the country was increasing as warmer weather brought cows into pasture to feed on grass dusted by fallout.

Four Conclaves Scheduled Here

Convention activities in Palm Springs hit a high pace for the first weekend in May wth four conclaves scheduled in to major hotels and another slated in city facilities, according to the chamber of commerce.

At least 300 Southern California city and county officials head the convention list with two separate conclaves, a meeting of California Contract Cities, at which more than 300 officials are expected, and the quarterly meeting of the Southern California Regional Association of County Supervisors, which anticipates a crowd of at least 200 elected and appointed administrators.

Highlight of the weekend's affairs will be the county supervisors sessions which start Thursday and wil linclude leaders from Imperial, Inyo, Los Angeles, Mono, Orange, Riverside, San Bernardino, San Diego, Santa Barbara and Ventura Counties.

Two of the sessions will be of special interest.

One is a Sheriffs' Seminar Thursday at 2 p.m. in which the subject will be "County Law Enforcement with Special Regard to Juvenile Problems, including Curfew Laws." The panel is to include A. E. Jansen, San Diego; H. C. Marlow, Los Angeles; Jim Musick, Orange; Herbert Hughes, Imperial, and Joe Rice, Riverside.

The other will be a progress report on the Feather River Project by Harold Kennedy, Los Angeles County Counsel.

Agenda for the contract cities sessions has not been disclosed, but it was anticipated they would be closely coordinated with he meetings of the county groups which serve them. Both are meeting at the Riviera Hotel.

Completing the schedule of meetings are the Accountants Cooperatives and Fuller Brush Co. at the Riviera Hotel, San Gabriel Federated Women's Clubs at El Mirador and Alcoholics Anonymous at the Pavilion.

Police Work Mighty Fast In One Case

Palm Springs police detective James Teal had recovered the missing silver, arrested the suspects and filed a report before Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Press, 925 Paseo El Mirador, knew they had been burglarized.

The quick police work came Saturday when Teal was advised by Mrs. Georgia Levin, Smoketree Ranch waitress, that $153 worth of clothing had been taken from her clothes line.

Teal, armed with a suspect's nickname, checked an Amado Street bar area, spotted a 12-year-old car with antique silver on the rear floor. He found the owner, who subsequently admitted taking the silver and a television set from the Press home, plus the missing clothes, Lt. Robert White said.

Arrested was Lucien A. Girard, 47, of 417 W. Arenas Road, who implicated Robert H. Dolin, 38, no address, and Donald D. Girton, 33, Hatchitt's Court.

Press returned to his home at 6 p.m. Saturday, reported the burglary, and learned police had re covered the loss.

Meeting Called

NORTH PALM SPRINGS — The May meeting of the North Palm Springs County Water District will be conducted Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. at 17731 Indian Ave., according to Tom Pendergast, board chairman. Previously the meetings were held at 17069 Indian Ave.

Negro Bus Test Seen

NEW ORLEANS (UPI) — The Greater New Orleans Citizens Council scheduled "freedom buses north" to New York, Chicago and Los Angeles today in a chips-down test against charges that its campaign is a hoax.

United Press International learned that the council also was planning to send some Negroes to Hyannis Port, Mass., President Kennedy's summer home. George Singelmann, director of the campaign to send unhappy southern Negroes north, said the Hyannis Port schedule was not ready for announcement.

Singelmann said five Negroes would be sent to Chicago today on Continental Trailways.

He said at least 100 would board a 12:45 p.m., EDT bus to New York. Another 25 Negroes, including 15 children from two families, would board a 10 p.m., EDT train to Los Angeles, he added.

Cool Car, Man, Real Cool Car

Palm Springs Patrolman Larry Bertolini reports finding a damp situation just before midnight Saturday at the Ranch Club.

It was an expensive new sedan registered to John Prunty of Fresno, which Bertolini said he found parked at 2743 North Indian Ave. where someone had inserted a garden sprinkler with the water running full blast.

Damage was estimated at $100. The complaint was filed as "malicious mischief."

Espionage Charge Hits Businessman

HEIDELBERG, Germany (UPI) — The West German Supreme Court will try an American businesman next week on espionage charges, U. S. Army headquarters announced today.

A spokesman said Harold N. Borger, 42, will be tried in Karlsruhe, beginning May 7.

Borger, who apparently had no permanent home address, has been held by German authorities since March, 1961, the Army said.

Borger is charged with "maintaining treasonable relations with an unknown eastern intelligence agency" to provide U.S. military information.

The Army said he came to Europe in 1959 as a private citizen to start an import-export business. While visiting Moscow, he met a member of an offcial East Germany trade agency who invited him to his East Berlin business office, the spokesman said.

Borger is accused of coming in contact with East German intelligence agents in this manner.

Early Meet At Summit Discounted

WASHINGTON (UPI)—U.S. officials today discounted the possibility of an early summit meeting, despite an offer by President Kennedy and British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan to consider one if developments warrant.

These officials said the nuclear test deadlock and continued Soviet pressure on Berlin appeared to rule out any summit conference in the near future.

But they acknowledged that Kennedy and Macmillan, who conferred here over the weekend, had left themselves plenty of latitude for a meeting with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

In a joint communique Kennedy and Macmillan said they would consider a meeting with Khrushchev whenever there was any sign that it would be in the interests of peace and understanding.

Chance Of Success

The President and the prime minister noted Khrushchev's recent statement that there should be no conference until there was a reasonable chance it would be successful.

The two Western leaders agreed there should be contacts with Russia at both high and low levels. This cleared the way for a Macmillan trip to Moscow, but British officials said there were no specific plans now for one.

The communique was issued shortly before Macmillan left for a two-day visit to Canada. The prime minister, who arrived in Washington Friday, said he and the President would continue to hold periodic meetings.

The communique said their day-long meeting Saturday and brief pre-luncheon session Sunday constituted a "general review of international problems facing their two countries."

Area Job Picture Bright

The job picture in the Palm Springs area has been bright during the past winter season, according to R. J. Nelson, manager of the local office of the California State Employment Service.

The Palm Springs branch office placed 783 persons on jobs since the office opened in December, 1961. The Palm Springs Employment Service also registered 656 persons for work since December 1961. According to Nelson the local office has unfilled job openings in the clerical and service fields and he urged any person seeking work to make application to the local office at 400 North Belardo Road.

Robert Baker and Wanda Paxton, Palm Springs Placement Interviewers, report excellent cooperation on the part of employers and applicants. Employers in need of help were urged to telephone the employment office to obtain qualified help to fill their needs.

IKE, MAMIE LEAVE

300 Tell 'Em Goodbye

SAN BERNARDINO, Calif. (UPI)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower and his wife, Mamie, ended their winter vacation in southern California's desert sunshine Sunday and left for the East aboard their private railroad car.

Well-tanned and sporting a grey Homburg, the former president chatted and signed autographs at the railroad station where about 300 well-wishers gathered to see them off.

Eisenhower indicated he would return to California next January.

"I'll see you all next January if I'm still healthful," he said in parting.

Mrs. Eisenhower expressed some reluctance in leaving the warm weather.

"My, this lovely sun, I hate to leave this beautiful place," she commented.

The Eisenhowers plan to travel to Abilene, Kan., for the dedication of the Eisenhower Library May 1. They will then go on to their Gettysburg, Pa., farm.

Boy Lost in Mountains Walks in

IDYLLWILD — A seven-year-old impromptu woodsman is back in the family fold, and probably headed for a backyard finish to a mountain holiday.

Danny Urquhart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Urquhart, Anaheim, walked into the McKinney cabin at Pinewood at p.m. Sunday after spending 23 chilly hours lost in the big pines. Danny had wandered away from the family camp at Black Mountain Camp, 20 miles from here, high in the pine San Jacinto mountains.

Approximately 50 volunteers from the forestry service and Riverside county sheriff's office joined the long search for Danny.

The youngster, who quickly downed two sandwiches and a tumbler of milk after turning up in Pinewood, is not sure what all the fuss was about. His mother told officers the family will probably get back to Anaheim, and camp out in the backyard on weekends.

Rail Unions Ready to Bargain on Work Rules

CHICAGO (UPI) — Spokesmen for five railroad operating unions said Sunday they are "prepared to bargain collectively" on work rules, providing negotiations with the nation's rail lines are not limited to presidential commission recommendations.

The work rules talks were to resume Tuesday following a weekend recess.

Conferences between the carriers and the on-train brotherhoods have been under way for several weeks. Little progress has been reported and a railroad spokesman has described the meetings as "first readings" of the presidential commission report.

S. C. Phillip, assistant president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, said the conferences thus far have dealt mainly with the carriers' original proposals "as modified by" the commission report.

In their statement, the five unions said they were "exerting every effort" to determine the railroads' position in the talks.

From the outset, Phillips said, the unions have "made it clear that they intend to fully discuss their own original proposals" rather than to limit the talks to the commission recommendation.

"The psitions of both parties must be fully clarified," Phillips said.

Among the most controversial of the presidential commission recommendations was the elimination over a 10-year period of the jobs of 41,000 diesel engine firemen.

Meanwhile, in a separate proceeding, representatives of the Chicago and North Western Railway and the Order of Railroad Telegraphers prepared to testify today on job stabilization before a presidential emergency board.

Indian Trusty Walks Away From His Jail

INDIO — Paul Joseph Hopkins, 22, of the Torees-Matrinez Indian reservation, walked off the job Saturday at the Riverside county jail here.

A sheriff's department spokesman said that Hopkins, who had served approximately three months on a six-months term for assault, had lost his trusty status when he was picked up in Beaumont in the forenoon Sunday.

Hopkin, who was assigned to cleaning office in the county building here Saturday morning, quietly walked out the door. He was found riding in a car in Beaumont Sunday and returned here. Felony escape charges are pending in Desert Municipal Court here, deputies reported.

INDIO — Rosary will be recited tonight at 8 p.m. in the Fitzhenry Funeral Home for Sharon Louise Witten, 15, of 72-945 Sonora, Palm Desert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Witten.

Palm Desert Library Gets Boost from Ike

PALM DESERT — Proponents of a community library for Palm Desert received a major boost in a letter from former President Eisenhower, a part-time resident, shortly before he left for his farm home in Gettysburg, Pa., Sunday.

Writing to Hal Kapp, president of the Palm Desert Library Association, the former president praised the library venture, which has raised a storm of protest by some of the citizenry here.

"Certainly I commend you and the citizens of Palm Desert for your enthusiasm and energy in working out plans for a new library here," the former president wrote.

"Because I am so shortly to leave for the East and because I cannot be familiar with the project at the moment, I wonder if you would let me simply register my interest; perhaps when I return next year I can find some way to be helpful," he concluded.

The agreement for the discussion of Dr. Bingham's resignation came after 50 persons — mostly parents of children treated by Dr. Bingham — asked why he was not retained on the medical staff. Protest letters on the resignation came from John Seamans, Palm Springs board member, and Mrs. Pearl McManus, Palm Springs civic and social figure.

AF Reserve Scrutinized

Approximately 35 Palm Springs area civic and business leaders inspected the 9625th Air Force Reserve Recovery Squadron at Palm Springs Airport Saturday.

The visit was made after a luncheon orientation in the Chi Chi restaurant, where Lt. Col. Paul Payne, Palm Springs commander, and Col. Robert S. Day, Long Beach sector commander, briefed guests on the squadron's mission. The unit is trained to receive — and decontaminate if needed —returning combat aircraft which cannot return to their originatig bases.

Col. Payne — an official of Palm Springs Water Co. in Civilian life — emphasized that the unit has five men out of 60 from the Coachella Valley area. Others drive from as far away as Lancaster for the monthly weekend duty. Summer encampment is slated here in August.

The unit, termed operational ready by Col. Day, works on maintenance procedures, communications, and actually receives aircraft through the complete combat procedure.

Area officers include Payne; Major Stephen Briggs, Coachella; Capt. Ben Constantino, Palm Desert, and Capt. Joseph Poist, Palm Springs.

BELGRADE (UPI) — The news agency Tanjug announced Friday that Yugoslav Foreign Minister Koca Popovic will visit Central and South America officially next month.

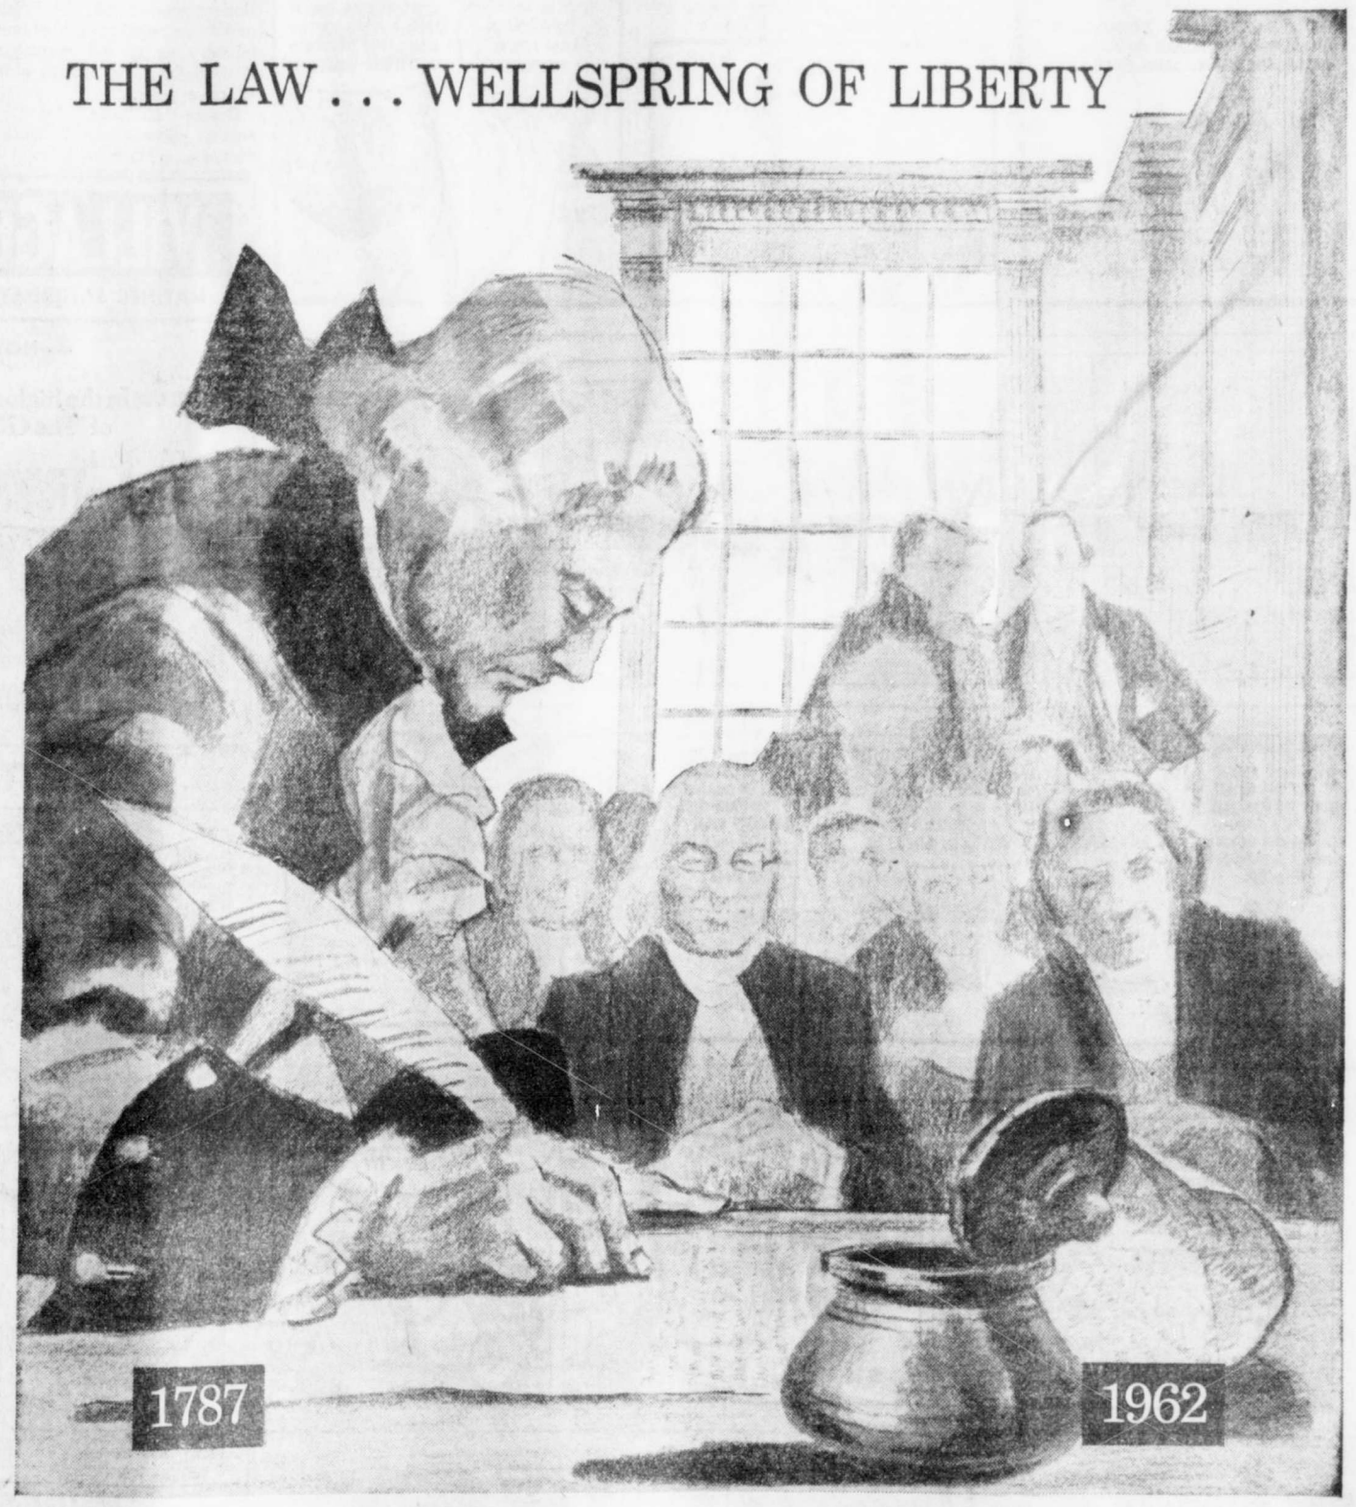
THE LAW . . . WELLSPRING OF LIBERTY



THE CONSTITUTION AND BILL OF RIGHTS

The Constitution of The United States of America, together with the subsequent amendments called the Bill of Rights, opened portals of freedom for all. Gladstone termed it "the most wonderful work ever struck off at a given time by the brain and purpose of man."

The foundation of law laid down in the Constitution made possible the flowering of our whole social order. Equal justice under law became an American tradition.

This year we celebrate the 175th anniversary of the drafting of our basic charter in the Constitutional Convention of 1787. Today, more than ever, the rule of law is indispensable in our daily lives and to the hopes of mankind for a peaceful world.

On May first of 1962 we observe another significant day—the fifth anniversary of Law Day USA. We do so by Act of Congress, and by official proclamation of the President of the United States. It is an occasion for American citizens to "rededicate themselves to the ideals of freedom and justice under law . . . to cultivate respect for law . . . to foster understanding and appreciation of our liberties and the legal and judicial institutions which protect them."

In these days of challenge to the concept of human freedom and dignity, these objectives are especially timely and important to Americans determined to preserve the values of our free society.

This message is published in recognition of the nationwide observance of Law Day USA on May 1.

Billions Erased

By PETER T. EARLE

NEW YORK (UPI)— Sweeping losses on the stock market this week erased more than $16 billion from paper values and put the general price level nearly 9 per cent below last December's all-time high.

Outside of some preferreds and a few common stocks which resisted on the basis of higher than expected earnings, most issues were not able to withstand the steady pressure which resulted in the widest decline of the year in the averages, sending Dow-Jones industrials to the lowest level in 13 months.

The worsening steel industry situation was the reason most frequently offered for the big spill. Many major steels reported earnings considerably above the depressed first quarter last year, but stressed the increasing cost-price cramps and pleaded for government aid through liberalized depreciation.

Production Declines

In addition, weekly steel production again declined sharply, two industry leaders were indicted by a federal grand jury on price fixing and bid rigging charges, and Bethlehem's chairman lowed his 1962 industry production forecast by 10 million tons.

Statements by government officials added to the market's woe. Treasury Secretary Douglas Dillon asked for business tax credit legislation to guard against a possible business downturn in 1963, and Commerce Secretary Luther Hodges warned that the President might act against the aluminum industry as he did against steel if the light metal makers also try to raise prices.

Despie all this, there was enough cheer in the business and economic picture to make it hard for the analysts to account for the extent of the decline.

First quarter earnings for most companies showed a big bulge over the initial period last year, new car sales and machine tool orders increased, and March construction contracts were estimated at an all-time high for the months.

PALM DESERT

Sunrise Service Attracts Over 300

PALM DESERT — A beautiful Easter sunrise service was held on the lawn of Shadow Mountain Club and presided over by the Reverends Dean Miller (Palm Desert Community Church) and E. David Natwick (Hope Lutheran of Palm Desert). Some 300 persons attended, staying for the Easter breakfast buffet afterwards. The organ was furnished by Givens Music Center of Palm Springs and 15 voices from the Palm Springs Civic Chorus, directed by Harry Tomlinson, sang the wonderful music of Easter.

The Easter Brunch at Shadow Mountain Club was packed with members and their children, and grandchildren. The J. F. O'Connor's family was together. June Goodwin entertained her cute grandchildren. Cathy and Al Scott visited their mother, Marian Henderson. Danny McCall (graduate of Stanford at Florence, Italy) came down from Cal (Berkeley), where he is a graduate student. The F. X. McDonald's were with their granddaughter, Robin Shaper, and her friend, Cheryl Wangler.

Easter Bonnets went on parade at the Shadow Mountain Club Sunday afternoon. The most unusual was won by Pat Sims with her "One for the Road"; the most comical by Miquela with a huge Mexican affair; the most beautiful by Shirley Barman with the pink, frothy, Angel View creation designed by clever Clara Spannagal; and Lela Thompson with her beautiful blue Gay 90's hat brought down the house when he took it apart and it tuned out to be her petticoat — really! D. W. Scott, one of the brave group of men also modeling hats, won a prize with his Puckish Palm Desert Palm Hat, also designed by C. Spannagel.

Out-of-town guests, the James O'Gara's (San Francisco), and the John Martin's (Salinas), were entertained by the Palmer Powell's at the Safari Ball (and what a wonderful night). Other's at their table were the Clarence Costa's from Thermal, and the George Anderson's from Palm Desert.

'Round the pool talk about where to go travelling brought up the interesting story of the Adrian Schwilcks trip to fascinating New Orleans. Brother-in-law Vernon Neuhaus ("Doc") sent his plane to Houston from McAllen, Texas (in the Rio Grande Valley), to pick up the Schwilcks, who were guests of Mercede's relatives, the Larry Gifts. Flying to New Orleans the Schwilcks checked in at the Royal Orleans. The beautiful "newest" hotel is in the French quarter and is a combination of modern and French colonial (the high ceilings and latticed windows being retained).

Tired after a constant whirl of social activity, the Schwilcks decided upon one day alone to do as they please. So Charles, a friendly taxi driver, was hired for a day. After a leisurely continental breakfast and with an eye on the rain clouds, they started on a round of antique shops, (each one like a page from history).

The Schwilcks friend, Bud Dante (head of Coral Recording), had asked them to look up Pete Fountain who with his Jazz Group was at the Bateau Lounge at Bourbon and Goulouse. Here they met the typical New Orleans musician, who never leaves his town for long (even to record) and heard the terrific rhythms of Fountain's beat music.

Dining at Antoines (founded in 1840) on St. Louis St., they relaxed in the atmosphere of the very old and very French.

A gay evening seeing the slightly shocking shows in the French Quarter ended with coffee and rolls and a late Twist jam session at the Court of Two Sisters. Thus ended their private day.

Champagne on May Day highlights the fancy buffet party planned by the Childrens Home Society at the Shadow Mountain Fairway Cottages. Mercedes Schwilck, who heads the project, invites all to come and enjoy the champagne (in a mountain of ice), the delicious hors d'ouvres (epicurean, no less), and the strolling musicians (to say nothing of the fancy electric door prizes), on Tuesday.

On the trip they visited old friend Axel Springborg (owner of Glen Ivy), who will soon leace for Denmark and the International Association Convention in Madrid. L. Serious Students Reap Rewards

Treat school as a serious business and you'll show a $100,000 profit.

This advice was offered to students and parents by the Palm Springs Teachers Association, a chapter of the California Teachers Association (CTA).

When one goes to school, the teachers said, it is very much like a person who is in business for himself. Like any independent business man, the success or failure of the endeavor is largely up to the individual.

Merchants who are on the job every day, who work hard and make every minute count stand to realize sizable profits. So do students, the teachers said. And the student's profit, like the merchant's, can be measured in dollars and cents. Surprised to hear that? Then, said the local teachers organization, read and think seriously about the following facts:

U.S. Census Bureau figures reveal that, on the average, those who have finished elementary school earn $116,000 in a lifetime; those who have finished high school earn $165,000; those who have finished four years of college earn $268,000.

In our increasingly technical age, job opportunities for persons without specialized training are slim and are becomng slimmer. During a recent economic slump, first to lose their jobs were the unskilled employees.

If a student is successful in his studies, and stands among the top students in his class, he is more likely to be accepted by the college of his choice — and he may be eligible for a scholarship that could save him thousands of dollars in preparing for his career.

The local teachers association is one of 643 chapters that form the 123,000-member CTA. One of its principal goals, according to Ronald Jahelka, chapter president, is to improve the quality of education in the public schools.

LAST YEAR'S rolling stock expenditure

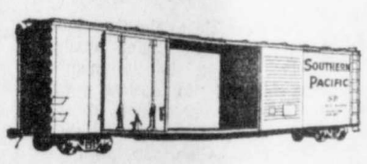
This year,

$69,000,000

Every industry, every farm, every household has a stake in this huge expenditure for new freight cars, locomotives and highway vehicles. This investment in the most modern equipment will help us hold down costs, and help shippers hold down their transportation costs, too.

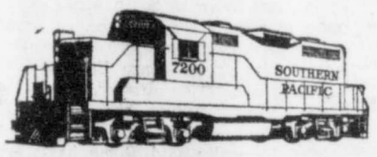
Our growing fleet of wide-door box cars permits faster loading at less cost. With these and other high-capacity cars, shippers can take advantage of "incentive" rate reductions for volume loading of many commodities. Shippers will have more specially equipped cars, too, for their fragile products. More highway and Piggyback equipment will also enable us to expand these flexible services.

This $69 million is only part of S. P.'s 1962 investment in greater efficiency. We also will spend $24 million for more electronic installations, such as Centralized Traffic Control, plus new freight handling, car and locomotive maintenance facilities, communications and other improvements. We are making these large expenditures to meet the ever-changing needs of a growing economy with the most modern, diversified and efficient transportation services.



1,958 wide-door box cars in 1962, plus 1,877 in 1961—3,835 in two years. S.P.'s fleet of wide-door cars is the largest in the United States.

117 flat cars in 1962, plus 307 last year—a two-year total of 424, including cars for Piggyback service and for heavy, fragile loads.



64 diesel locomotives in 1962, in addition to 34 last year—a total of 98 in two years.

Also included in S.P.'s 1961 and 1962 equipment purchases: 877 hopper cars, 139 gondola cars, 445 multi-level Auto-Packs, 1,737 highway vehicles. Not included: an expenditure of $18 million by Pacific Fruit Express (owned by S.P. and U.P.) for new equipment, including 1,000 refrigerated highway trailers and 300 flat cars for piggybacking of perishables.

WHEN THE P.E.O. SISTERHOOD holds its convention here May 8-10, Mrs. Glenn Watson of Palm Springs, who has served many years on the state board, will be advisor.

Past State President to Be P.E.O. Convention Advisor

Mrs. Glenn Burton Watson, advisor for the 59th convention of the California State Chapter of the P.E.O. Sisterhood meeting at the Riviera Hotel in Palm Springs May 8, 9 and 10, brings to her position years of experience on the executive board of the state chapter. In the term of 1934-35 she served as president of the state and presided at the convention held in Sacramento.

Ethel Watson's P.E.O. membership began in 1924 when she joined Chapter CK in Arcadia. She left this chapter to start a new chapter in Arcadia, KH. Eleven years ago she moved to Palm Springs where she joined KV chapter.

She was born in Omaha, Nebraska, the daughter of Attorney and Mrs. A. E. Garten. She has a brother, Vern Garten, an attorney in Long Beach. She is the sister of the late Ruth Garten White, M. D., California State Chapter Past President and four years a member of the Supreme Board executive group at the international level.

Graduated from Nebraska Wesleyan University from the School of Music in voice, public school music and expression, she taught five years in Nebraska before coming to California in 1920. In 1922 she married Glenn Burton Watson, Civil Engineer.

Mrs. Miller Makes Time for For Bluebirds

A busy housewife and parent always can find time for an extra activity, and this has been proven by Mrs. Richard C. Miller.

Mrs. Miller has three children, is a member of the Cahuilla School PTA, but still has time to be a Bluebird leader of the "Happy" Bluebirds of Cahuilla School.

A native Californian, Mrs. Miller was born in Fresno. Before marriage, she was an airline stewardess for American Airlines. Her husband is an aircraft engineer.

Gardening and sewing keep Mrs. Miller pretty busy as hobbies often do, but she finds time to hold Bluebird meetings at the home of Mrs. Richard Kelly. Each week, she picks the girls up for their after school meetings. She even works with the Cub Scouts.

The Millers have lived in Palm Springs for three years and have no plans of moving for a long time, says Mrs. Miller.

When in Rome Do As You're Told to Do

By JOAN SWEENEY

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Going to Rome? Need an English speaking dentist or perhaps a villa with seven bedrooms and baths for a month:

A personalized service called Guide-International can provice either.

The service guides tourists to everything from out-of-the-way bargains to ice cream sodas.

Guide International is the brain child of dark-haired, dark-eyed Mrs. Paola Kenneally. The daughter of a Danish count and an Italian woman, Mrs. Kenneally was raised in Italy. But she lived in America for several years after her marriage to an American citizen in 1951.

Although Guide International's clients come from many countries, from India to South Africa, most of them are Americans.

The most common services the organization provides are English speaking secretaries, drivers, lawyers, doctors, dentists and shipping guide.

Mrs. Kenneally said Rome has many bargains but a tourist must know where to go. Her organization also provides guides for bargain hunting expeditions.

Mrs. Kenneally can tell an American tourist where to find hot dogs—and spaghetti and meat balls.

"I never heard of spaghetti and meat balls until I came here after I was married," she said. "It was the shock of my life."

"The Italians will hate me," she added, "but the best pizza I ever had in my life was in New York."

Now They Set Hair with Milk As The Lotion

By GAY PAULEY

NEW YORK (UPI)— The ancient queen Cleopatra supposedly bathed in milk for beauty's sake. Now, her modern sisters are soaking their hair in the stuff for the same reason.

At least two New York hairdressing salons said they are using diluted skimmed milk as the "lotion" for setting their customers' locks.

I was tempted immediately to pun about "the skim you love to touch," but refrained after the hairdressers assured that the use of milk has valid benefits and produces hair sets no less than sensational.

"What's good for babies is good for the hair," said Ila Krause, of Ila Hairdressers, Inc., one of the pioneers in use of milk in the beauty shop.

Anthos Jordan, who owns a chain of shops in New York and New Jersey, said he had been using skimmed milk for hair set tings "four or five years now."

More Sheen

Mr. Cris, spokesman for the Anthos salons, said that the chain's hairdressers preferred skimmed milk to beer, ginger Ale and even champagne (other lotions often used to "starch" a coiffure) because the milk leaves more sheen, more bulk.

Milk is especially effective, he said, on hair which has been altered in texture by bleaching and dyeing.

Anthos dilutes the milk with about equal parts of water, depending on texture of the customer's hair. He said the "lotion" did not leave any flakiness and no odor two days later of an unwashed milk bottle.

"This," said Ila, "is the greatest thing that has happened to the dairy industry since Invention of the milking machine."

Something new in infants' wear promises a longer wearing span as the child grows. It is called an "extenderall", of dacron and cotton poplin, which is a one-piece garment much like a coverall. It "grows," as the infant grows, because of a foldover tuck above the waistline which can be expanded. The manufacturer said the garment comes with a button-in lining which can be removed for warm weather wear.

ALMOST BURIED under tons of clean laundry, this is a symbolical picture of Mrs. Helen Ryssel, La Quinta's housekeeper, who does everything on a mammoth scale.

350 Beds to Make

Hotel Housekeeping is Different

Madame, if you think you've got a big job of spring housecleaning to face, give a gander at the daily — yes, daily — tasks faced by Mrs. Helen Ryssel, executive housekeeper at La Quinta Hotel.

—350 beds to make, or 700 sheets and an equal number of pillow cases.

—700 towels to be changed daily.

—168 tablecloths used daily.

—2,500 table napkins daily.

—200 carpeted rooms to be vacuumed daily.

—122 bathrooms to be cleaned daily.

—400 windows to be washed weekly.

Plus bar towels and uniforms for seven maids, six houseboys, waiters, busboys, chefs and cooks.

And more. Each guest room must be checked for supplies of stationery, sewing kits, styptic kits, soap and soap powder, menus, water pitchers. And each bungalow must have its fireplace cleaned and a new fire laid on the hearth. And all the private patios must be cleaned.

This, in addition to keeping the lobby, game rooms, drawing room and offices clean and neat.

It sounds like a mammoth task, and remember next time you feel like griping about your housecleaning chores. And who doesn't feel like griping about them occasionally?

But Helen Ryssel is used to it. This is her second season at La Quinta Hotel, and she has held similar posts at Sequoia National Park, Coulter Bay in Grand Teton National Park and Feather River Inn. Next summer she'll be working at Lake Tahoe.

When she makes these seasonal moves from one resort to another, Mrs. Ryssel takes most of her staff with her, maids and houseboys included. They are accustomed to working as a team, know what she wants accomplished and the standards of cleanliness to which she adheres.

"Really, we work together," she says with a smile. "It's our job to keep the place clean and neat. We all like our work and are proud of doing it well."

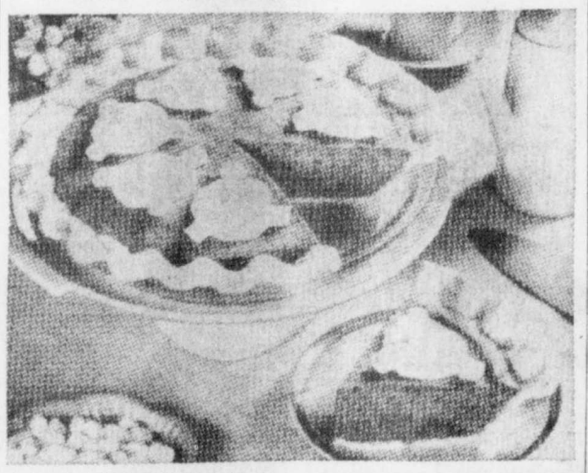
Mexican Shrimp Is Plentiful

Mexico, with its long coastline on warm water, produces millions of pounds of shrimp annually. In fact, shrimp enjoy such great popularity in Mexico that a well-known saying has grown around them — "Camaron que se duerme se lo lleve la corriente." Translated it means "The sleeping shrimp is carried away by the current," or as we know it, "Don't go to sleep or the parade will pass you by."

To slice Brazil nuts thin for a garnish, first parboil them for a few minutes, then slice with a vegetable peeler.

REFRESHING SPRING DESSERT

Mint Chiffon Pie



You won't want to pass mints with coffee when you serve this pie, for mints are an essential ingredient of the chiffon beauty—a frothy and refreshing dessert for springtime.

Like all true chiffon pies, the filling is basically a custard with gelatin added to help "set" it. Egg whites and whipped cream are folded in to insure fluffiness.

But the real surprise lies in the discovery that a small package of After Dinner Mints provides the cooling, satisfying flavor. The mints are simply dissolved in the hot milk. A little green food coloring intensifies the attractive color of the pie, with tufts of whipped cream and more mints to garnish it.

Mint Chiffon Pie

1 envelope (1 tablespoon) unflavored gelatin
1 cup milk
1 4-ounce package After Dinner Mints
3 eggs, separated
½ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon vanilla
Few drops green food coloring
¼ teaspoon cream of tartar
¼ cup sugar
1 cup whippping cream, whipped
1 baked 9-inch pie shell

Soften gelatin in ¼ cup of the milk for 5 minutes. Scald remaining milk. Add mints; stir until dissolved. Gradually beat a fourth of the milk mixture into beaten egg yolks. Stir into remaining milk mixture. Cook over moderate heat until slightly thickened. Add gelatin; stir until dissolved. Stir in salt, vanilla and food coloring. Chill until partialy thickened. Beat egg whites until frothy; add cream of tartar. Continue beating until whites will hold a soft peak. Gradually add sugar; continue beating until stiff and glossy. Fold into gelatin mixture. Fold in whipped cream. Spoon into pie shell, spreading evenly. Chill until set. Before serving, decorate with sweetened whipped cream and mints.

If candles are stored in the refrigerator for 24 hours before using, they will not drip and will burn evenly.

Two Palm Springs Girls Selected for Girls' State

Margo Morrison and Charlotte Larrieu, Palm Springs High School Juniors, have been selected to attend the 19th California Girls State, held on the Davis Campus of the University of California, June 18 - 26. Margo is the 16-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Morrison of 1305 Buena Vista Drive, Palm Springs, and Charlotte, also 16, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harley Larrieu of 37056 Glenn Avenue, Cathedral City.

According to Mrs. Ruth Allen, local Girls State chairman, this 19th annual project in practical Americanism and citizenship training is sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary, Department of California.

The preamble to the Constitution of the American Legion Auxiliary states, in part, that its members are obligated "to inculate a sense of individual obligation to the Community, State and Nation." This, Mrs. Allen explained, the American Legion endeavors to accomplish by the practical instruction of youth in the privileges, duties, rights and responsibilities of American citizenship.

Close to 500 girls attended Girls State last year. Each girl is assigned to a city area, and sets up residence. The group then elects a city government, a Girls' State Legislature, Police, Superior and Supreme Court judges, and the girls are then ready to begin to learn by doing. From this practical school of government they learn that each can vote for the candidate of her choice, and that each can have voice and a part in shaping the policies of government.

To be selected to attend Girls State is one of the highest honors given California girls.

Water Decision Before Rancho Mirage Voters

Residents living on former homestead lands east of Rancho Mirage will vote Tuesday May 29 on a proposal to issue $200,000 in improvement bonds to pay for a domestic water system.

The date was set by directors of the Coachella Valley County Water District as creation of the arear, comprising slightly more than a half square mile, as Improvement District No. 8 was formally approved at a public hearing.

Election officials were named for the balloting, and it appeared probable that once the officials have cast their own votes, most of their work of the day will be finished — there is but a handful of voters residing on the properties.

However, these residents have been acting on behalf of numerous property owners who have holdings in the lands involved in the improvement district but reside elsewhere and, thus, are not registered to vote there.

The polling place was officially established by the CVCWD board in the home of Charles E. Travis, 38-721 Travis Way, Rancho Mirage, and the election board officials are: Travis, inspector; Frederick M. Zring, judge; Mrs. Charles E. Travis and Mrs. Frederick M. Zring, clerks.

Lands included in the Improvement District lie in Sections 6 and 8 along Country Club Road east of Rancho Mirage. Although orginally obtained by the owners through homestead, the holdings have had a rather "Cinderella" development as a syndicate of investors, including Bob Hope, has acquired extensive lands in the western half of Section 6 and plans a major recreation, commercial and home development.

Owners of the holdings in the area for which the domestic water service is being planned foresee a booming future for their half of the section once the water system is installed.

The official canvass of the May 29 votes will be made by the water district board on June 4, and, if the issue has carried as it seems almost certainly to do, the way then will be cleared for further moves to issue the bonds, sell them and obtain the funds for the starting of the laying of the distribution system.

Tomorrow: Law Day USA

May Day, the first day of the new month which dawns tomorrow, is the day chosen by the Communist countries to display their might. It is the day the Reds flex their muscles in long lines of marching men and rumbling juggernauts in the streets of Moscow while super-jet fighters and bombers scream overhead and intercontinental missiles are shown.

It is a mighty display intended to intimidate the Free World which, the Kremlin scornfully says, spends the day watching children prance around gaily beribboned Maypoles.

For the past five years, at least, the Kremlin has been mistaken.

America, too, has its special May Day observance, not with a showing of military might designed to frighten, but with a firm program to solidify the will of its people in their determination to remain free and strong.

May Day, tomorrow, will be observed for the fifth time as Law Day USA. It was established by the 87th Congress and is so proclaimed by President Kennedy.

Nationally, it is sponsored by the American Bar Association and here, in the Desert Empire, by the Desert Bar Association.

Henry Cleary, president of the local association, says that Law Day USA is the occasion for American citizens "to rededicate themselves to the ideals of freedom and justice under the law — to cultivate respect for our laws, to foster understanding and appreciation of our liberties and the legal and judicial institutions which protect them."

Tomorrow's observance of Law Day, USA, should be universal. It should be a day when we again can express our appreciation of what we have in this, a free country, and to determine to keep it free.

Moscow's buildings may quiver under the rumble of the mighty war machines.

But in America, the day isn't being spent in watching children dance around gaily beribboned Maypoles .

We, too, will be observing a traditional day — Law Day, USA.

Its purpose is mighty, too, and probably as far-reaching or more so, than a display of military might which is vulnerable.

The spirit of freedom and liberty under the law is not.

You Are Invited to See for Yourself

The public schools of the nation have undergone a tremendous change since first inaugurated. Educational institutions have existed in America for more than three centuries, long before this became the United States — Harvard University celebrated its 300th anniversary in 1936.

The public school system came later and it, too, has flourished and undergone steady changes since the days of the first one-room schools. These changes have been the subject of many a debate and an argument. Some approve, others strongly disapprove.

But this week you have a chance to see for yourself.

April 30 to May 5 is Public Schools Week in California and it will be observed with special programs featuring Open Houses. It is a week when the schools make a special effort to tell their story to parents and the public in general. It is also the best time for the public to find out what is happening in the classrooms of 1962.

Schools are changing more rapidly today than at any time in their history. Methods of teaching have changed. There is a revolution in the teaching of all subjects. These are the things that can and do arouse arguments.

The truth is that the school is one of the most exciting places in the community today. It is in a desperate race against time—a race forced upon it by a fantastic breakthrough in most fields of knowledge and by soaring enrollments caused by the population explosion. Add to this the Communist threat and increasing demands by educators and the public for excellence and we can see why the public school has become more important than ever before.

Because of this growing importance of education and because of the arguments, this year's Public Schools Week deserves a special effort on the part of the schools and the public to know each other better.

Never was mutual understanding between our schools and the community more vital to community progress and our national survival.

The public school system has been designated as the "foundation of truth and freedom in a free and enlightened society" or, in the words of the Public Schools Week theme for 1962 "America's Heritage and Strength."

Visit your school this week. See for yourself how the program is being improved.

HOLMES ALEXANDER:

Drops of Water and the Rock

WASHINGTON, D. C. — On the northwest corner of LaFayette Park, a short block from the the White House, stands a Greco-Roman statuary group which shows a war veteran instructing a young cadet in the use of the battle sword.

Manliness, valor and patriotism are the motif of the impressive work. Since these are universal, human, admirable, indispensable traits, no one could rationally expect them to vanish from the earth.

Yet the White House has issued a three-page summary of a 25-page outline of a "Treaty of General and Complete Disarmament in a Peaceful World." The latter document is put out by the new, expensive, utterly unnecessary pocket bureau of the State Department called "U. S. Arms Control and Disarmament Agency." Not satisfied with the summary, I obtained the full 25-page treatment. While I was settling down to devour it, I found on my desk two other current Government documents, totaling 45 pages, put out by another State Department satellite, Ed Murrow's U. S. Information Agency, detailing the Soviet propaganda assault during 1961.

While the Disarmament people were offering terms by which our military might would be dissolved, the Information shop was demonstrating how Russia intends to overcome us by propaganda. "A doubling of broadcast activity directed to Africa was the major development in Communist Bloc international radio propaganda during 1961," reports USIA.

Well, if the Reds incite Arfica, Asia and parts of Latin America to march against us, warfare (which the Ancient World and our own Early Americans regarded as a virtuous pursuit) would represent our only means of defense.

Not many newspapers reprinted or reported the full outline of the Disarmament Treaty, largely because nobody takes it seriously. But the continuous fall of a drop of water will wear away the rock. I think we should note where pacifism in Government is making a slow erosion into the one sure defense against those who hate us.

Paragraph A-1 of the Treaty Outline envisions a day when "war is no longer an instrument for settling international problems" and postulates that this can happen when "disarmament is general and complete." This passage would hardly be written if the Government authorities would read and heed the current best-seller, "The Guns of August" in which the author, Barbara Tuchman, tells of the coming of World War I. The little Kingdom of Belgium, at the time, was an example of the theory that treaties, disarmament and neutral zones will prevent war. Belgium had been pieced together by the post-Napoleonic powers as a neutral zone. Belgium's neutrality was pledged by practically all the nations which fought there from 1914-1918, and again from 1939-1945. The weakness and unpreparedness of Belgium did not deter the Germans from attack.

Paragraph A-2 states the objective of arranging throughout the world the "disbanding of armed forces . . . elimination of all stockpiles of nuclear, chemical, biological and other weapons of mass destruction . . . all means of delivery of weapons . . . cessation of military training . . . discontinuance of military expenditure."

Stage One of the transition into armlessness would see a 30 per cent reduction of the heavier weapons, both of offense and defense. To the USA, for example, these provisions, if adopted, would mean reduction of three out of every ten Atlas, Titan, Polaris, Minutemen and Hound Dog missiles, and of B-52 aircraft. Also the provisions would require destroying three of every ten Nike-family missiles, which are intended wholly for defense against airborne Red rockets in flight toward the American homeland.

It doesn't seem possible that Government officials, headed by an historian President, could forget the history of modern disarmament. We sank some of our Navy after World War I, but it didn't prevent World War II. In 1945 we demobilized our armed forces and reduced our military budget to a minimal $12 billion—but by 1950 we were again at war.

Other Disarmament Treaty provisions are equally appalling. They swear at enduring evidences of war like the LaFayette Square statue. They stand ridiculously exposed to fact sheets by Federal and Congressional groups, showing the Comunists at work everywhere on earth to destroy us.

Can it be sanely proposed that we disarm? The danger, of course, is not that we or the Reds will agree to do so any time soon. The danger is that the drip-drip of pacifist progaganda will wear away the flint of the military spirit, our salvation in times past, present and future.

THIS SIDE Of The Sun

R. F. "Phat" GRAETTINGER

Tomorrow's the day,
The first of May,
I hope it doesn't turn hot.
Or my capacity for veracity
Will certainly go to pot.

The way I've always been bragging on May, if it should turn torrid I just know a lot of people have a sneer all ready to wrinkle up their nose and say:

"As a weather prognosticator, you're a bum."

And they're just the kind who can sneer a word like that in a most unkind way.

SO FAR, the weather has been kind to me in May. I have been lucky. I wish I could prognosticate results on the pari-mutuel bridle paths the same way. I wouldn't be here. Maybe on some far-off South Pacific island looking at the lazy palms swaying their leaves. Or something else swaying their leaves.

Anyway, May should be nice and if you didn't forget to move your watch up, you'll be greeting it an hour earlier.

COMES A LETTER from Edward M. Dering of 1252 North Riverside Dr. Commenting on my low humor in seeing oddities in name combinations in the news, he submits a list of interesting combinations he found while browsing through the 1962 telephone directory.

Like Organ-Music, Long-Short, Sterling-Silver, Laws- Justice, Strong-Hercules-Samson, Furlong -Miles, Husband-Dame.

MANY OF THE COLORS are in the phone book, he wrote. You can find Black, Blue, White, Green and so on. For moods, among others, Gay, Gallent, Merry.

For titles we have Knight, Bishop, Baron, King.

Mr. Dering must be a man after my own heart — easily finding interesting things in odd places to while away an occasional dull moment.

IN HIS PERUSAL of the phone book he found the names of 17 presidents, 10 Apostles, 6 nationalties (no Dutch, he said but some are Dutcher), 7 animals (and, of course, a Hunter and a Chase), 9 foods including Coffee with Milkie, 5 fish plus a Hook and a Line, 6 automobiles and 22 names of jobs or trades. He wrote that he even found the Real McCoy.

In closing, he added: "May I congratulate you that no one is every going to play any tricks with the name of Graettinger."

Well, Mr. Dering, if you don't mind an extra "R" that would take a lot of derring-do.

ANYWAY, it's nice to know that somebody else finds entertainment in odd places and doesn't have to get out a deck of cards and be honest at solitaire or find a four-letter rame for a seaport on Opolu Island in the cross-word puzzle, when he's bored.

Like on discovering that he's seen that Who-Dun-It on TV before. It's that time of year for repeats.

Now I got to get busy. I'm only up to page 16 in the new dictionary. Only 1704 more to go.

ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

Dear Abby . . .

DEAR ABBY: Do they sell donkey blinders for men? I need a pair for my husband. He never watches where he is driving. Instead, he's busy gawking at the women along the streets. he drives about ten miles an hour to be sure he doesn't miss anything. He's come close to a lot of accidents. How can I make him keep his eye on the road?—THE WIFE

DEAR WIFE: Even donkey blinders would be useless for this breed of donkey. If you can't get his mind off the "scenery," take the wheel. If he doesn't like it, let him trot.

DEAR ABBY: Our daughter is going steady with a boy we object to very much. Here is the reason. His family is loaded with divorces. His own mother and father are divorced. (His mother is remarried.) He has two sisters and they have both been divorced. One was married a second time and was divorced from her second husband, too. We heard that his grandmother on his father's side had also been divorced. He seems like a very nice young man, but the history of his clan is so bad with all those divorces we are fearful for our aughter's happiness. —FEARFUL

DEAR FEARFUL: Divorce in the family frequently inspires the offspring to succeed in their own marriages. Don't condemn the boy because of his family. Judge him on his own merits.

Stop worrying. Let Abby help you with that problem. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

For Abby's booklet, "How To Have A Lovely Wedding," send 50 cents to Abby, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif.

Remember When

April 30, 1952

Election of Councilman Florian Boyd in District Five was challenged by the Palm Springs News but the official just laughed at the charges.

Earl Hough was elected president of Palm Springs Lions Club; John Connell, Ralph Nesmith and Lloyd Mason Smith, vice-presidents; Kenny Brott, secretary; Merritt Williams, treasurer; and Murray Barrick, tail-twister.

Councilman Ted McKinney was named chaiman of the city's Indian Affairs committee by Mayor Charles Farrell.

April 30, 1942

City council granted zone variances for the army at El Mirador Hotel which they were converting into a General Hospital and the first patients were due to move in June 1.

Sugar rationing applications were announced for Village families by Raymond Wilson of the rationing board. The site for registration was Frances Stevens School.

Mike Lilly, local Indian, tried to save gasoline because of wartime rationing and set a small tin can alongside the carburetor of his car to catch any drip. He was bowling along Palm Canyon Drive when a backfire ignited the gas in the can. Fire Chief Bill Leonesio and his crew saved the car.

April 30, 1932

Dolores .Del .Rio, .accompanied by her mother, was a guest at the Desert Inn. Others from the movie colony in Hollywood at the Inn were Sydney Fox and Claude Gillingwater.

Robert Lerch, manager of Bullocks at the Desert Inn said the store would close for the summer at the end of the week after having remained open two weeks longer than usual.

BOB CONSIDINE:

Mob Guessed Wrong On Le Grand Charles

NEW YORK,—In the Torment of the Algerian crisis, with Mainland French against Colonial French, Moslems against both, and so many other frictions and factions, one loses sight of a primary miscalculation. The mob guessed wrong on Le Grand Charles.

Gen. De Gaulle was returned to power by the men on whom he now has had to pass prison and guillotine sentences. They who brought him back from a state of retirement roughly akin to that now enjoyed by, say, Harry Truman or Douglas McArthur, constitute his major opposition. They believe he felt the same as they. That Algeria must remain a part of France, and that the element in the Assembly who suggested otherwise was composed of nuts.

De Gaulle came back, 'Midst all but unprecedented scenes in Paris. We were assigned there the day he took over, and suddenly there was a new note of resolution in the air. John Rich of NBC and I went out on a kind of patrol trip that day and were able to report a decisive end to the kind of indecision that had marked the previous 20-odd governments: A Paris cab driver, forced to veer into a curb by a passing van, shook his fist at the departing driver and called him a De Gaulle lover, with gallic overtones.

A French cop—and they must be among the toughest in the world — reached into the cab, pulled the hackie off his seat, belted him on the head with the fungo bat those guys carry instead of billies, tossed him in a Marie Noir, and off it went. The motor of the cab was still running.

A day or two later, De Gaulle made his first flight to Algiers after his coming of power. As his Caravelle whistled in for a landing I was standing with Hal Lehrman, the famed foreign correspondent, and said something like, "Suppose it cracks up? If it does, France is in for the worst time in its history."

Hal said something valid to the effect that I was writing the new leader off before he could even get started.

The new leader wrote himself off, so far as his military and civilian patrons in Algeria were concerned, later that day. He appeared on a balcony overlooking the Forum, in Algiers, spread ut his arms like a giant confor as he leaped to the podium — it seemed as if he were about to embrace and buss perhaps a quarter of a million in his audience—and made a startling declaration.

Algerians, he said, were as good as Frenchmen, they were, in fact, Frenchmen. They deserved proper presentation in the assembly and on the basis of their population, too. It was criminal to have three of them in the assembly instead of 33. It was terrible that they had been exploited, pusheda round.

I'll never forget the shocked looks on the faces of the French in Algeria. The first reaction, and it was pure chain reaction, was a chant of "Vive Soustelle . . . Vive Soustelle . . . Vive Soustelle". Jacques Soustelle had escaped from France to Algiers in the trunk of a car to say, in effect, that De Gaulle was their man and that he would see to it that Algeria was always a part of France, now they wanted the proconsul, not the McCoy.

WASHINGTON — Federal Aviation Administrator Najeeb E. Halaby, defending air traffic controllers in discussing two near collisions over Washington National Airport:

SAN JOSE, Calif. — City Treasurer Robert D. Callison, arrested for stealing between $60,000 and $80,000 from parking meter revenues:

Other Editors

(Hemet News)

An attempt has been made by the Kennedy Administration to perpetuate in law the Internal Revenue Service's present policy of penalizing any business that spends money to present to the public its case in legislative matters.

The Revenue Service decree has been so unpopular that legislation was introduced in Congress by a Louisiana Democrat, Representative Hale Boggs, to allow deduction of the costs of such informational advertising as a business expense. Evidently sensing the public feeling, the administration announced that the principle of the Boggs bill had been incorporated in the new tax measure.

Actually, it appears, the opposite could be true. The tax bill could allow the costs of lobbying before Congress or any other legislative body to be deducted as a business expense; yet it specifically excluded from deduction any expenses incurred in approaching the public directly through the newspapers or other media.

In other words, business is still going to be taxed for explaining to the people who own it, who work for it, who benefit by it, what it is threatened with in the way of legislation. According to the Administration, it is a legitimate business expense to tell Congressional or other legislation representatives of the people where an industry stands in regard to pending legislation, but not to tell the people themselves.

This could only lead us to believe that the Administration does not wish that the public be informed, at least that is our interpretation of the present policy.

ANNUAL TOURNEY

Racquet Cup Tennis Meet Champs Crowned

Four pairs of winners and four teams of runners-up were crowned at the conclusion of two-days play in the 13th annual Invitational Cup tennis tournament staged at the famed Racque Club yesterday.

In one of the strongest fields ever to enter the annual event, Jack Wall and Valademir Petrovic def. Judge Joseph Ciano and David Martin, 6-3, 7-5, in the finals to cop the men's doubles championship title.

In the semi-final matches Sunday morning, Ciano and Martin def. Deane Overmeyer and Tom Springer, 6-4, 6-4, to advance to the finals. The defending champs, Wall and Petrovic, def. Al Martini and Ed Kauder, 4-6, 11-9, 6-2, to gain the finals.

In the "A" flight mixed doubles, Mrs. Dinah Shore Montgomery and Maurice Smith def. Jean and Bill Gilbert, 3-6, 6-3, 6-4, to win the championship.

Winners of the men's doubles "A" flight were John Eisendarth and Dr. E. J. Olson, who def. Bill Gilbert and Al Jablow, 4-6, 6-3, 6-3 in a very close and exciting match for the title.

The mixed doubles championship was won by Petrovic and Corky Olerich on default as Wall, who was playing with his partner Flo Allen sustained an injury and was forced to quit the match during the second set.

Giants Open Series With Pittsburgh

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)— Now that they've had lots of batting practice against the feeble Chicago Cubs, the San Francisco Giants tangle with a more dangerous outfit today when they open a four game series with the the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Rookie right hander Gaylord Perry (1-0) is manager Alvin Dark's choice to try and run the Giants' winning streak to six. He will face Wilmer (Vinegar Bend) Mizell, (1-0), Pittsburgh's veteran lefty who has a lifetime record of 16-17 against the Giants and is 1-0 this season.

Dodgers Drop 2 Games Sunday to Pittsburgh

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Smarting under their loss of two games Sunday to the Pittsburgh Pirates, the Los Angeles Dodgers hoped they could regain some ground in the National League races starting tonight against the Chicago Cubs.

Stan Williams, who has a 5-1 lifetime record against the Cubs, will take the mound for the Dodgers in the first of the three games with Chicago. Opposing him will be Dick Ellsworth, 2-1.

And Manager Walter Alston said he would make a few lineup changes for tonight's game, using big Frank Howard at first base, Andy Carey at third, and Norm Sherry behind the plate in place of the injured John Roseboro.

Roseboro suffered an eye injury in a freak accident in the second inning of the nightcap Sunday when a foul tip broke his mask and the ball hit him in the right eye. He was hospitalized for observation although team physicians said the injury did not appear serious.

Alston said the 6-1 and 1-0 losses to the Pirates were as much the result of good Pittsburgh pitching as they were due to the lack of extra base hitting by the Dodgers. The double victories moved the Pirates into first place while the Dodgers dropped back to fourth, 2 games off the pace.

"I thought the main bright spot was the pitching of Joe Moeller, in the second game," Alston commented, "Johnny Podres also pitched fairly well until the seventh inning of the first game."

Bob Friend and Alvin McBean fattened their pitching records on the Dodgers. Friend posted his fourth win against one loss in the opener as he set the Dodgers down with four hits. For McBean his shutout was his third win without a defeat.

Homers played an important part in both games. Dick Stuart's blow off Moeller in the second game was the inning run. It traveled about 430 feet into the Dodger's bullpen in left field.

In the first game rookie Howie Goss hit a two run homer off Podres in the seventh inning to start a four run rally. It was his first major league homer, while Stuart's was his second of the season.

The Dodgers failed to get an extra base hit in either game. The Pirates had six doubles in their first game and one in the second in addition to the homers.

Palmer Bags Texas Golf Meet

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (UPI)—It gets pretty corny to say the fans got their money's worth, but when amazing Arnold Palmer comes to town that usually is the case.

The overflow gallery that followed Palmer through the final rounds of the Texas Open Sunday got par value plus when the stout pro out of Miami, Fla., burned in with a birdie to edge four hopefuls.

Winning an unprecedented third straight Texas Open, Palmer had not led through three rounds. He played his usual role of staying in close and pouring on the pressure on the back nine of the last round. His 67 gave him a 273 total, just enough to edge out Gene Littler, Rancho Bernardo, Calif., Joe Campbell, Pendleton, Ind., Doug Sanders, Ojai, Calif., and Mason Rudolph of Clarksville, Tenn., who tied for second at 274. Each of that group pocketed $2,050 for the tournament.

Dave Marr, Sun City, Ariz., was alone at 276 for $1,400 while Dave Hill, Denver, Colo., and Jackie Burke Kiamesha Lake, N.Y., got $1,250 with their 277 totals.

Bunched at 278 for $933 were Bob Goalby, Crystal River, Fla., Tommy Aaron, Gainesville, Ga., Mike Souchak, Grossinger, N.Y., Phil Rodgers, La Jolla, Calif., Jon Gustin, Gladwyne, Pa., and Dan Sikes, Jacksonville, Fla.

Campbell, second and third round leader, had a bad front nine and saw his late push rail when he could not get a birdie on the 18th hole.

Palmer's first-place prize was $4,300 bringing his leading money winning total for the year to $41,308.

"San Antonio surely has been good for me," the Latrobe, Pa., native said Sunday shortly before catching a plane for Las Vegas and the Tournament of Champions which starts Thursday.

"That tee shot on 18 was hit," Palmer smiled about the beautiful 170-yard seven-iron shot that landed almost dead a foot and a half from the cup. The ensuing birdie was the stroke that stood up in the dramatic finish.

Angels Hurlers Picked Apart by Tigers, 13-6

CLEVELAND (UPI)— The Los Angeles Angels were resting today, hiding would be a more apt way of phrasing it, and were expected to creep from seclusion Tuesday to open a brief two game series with the Cleveland Indians.

Somehow, the Angels scrambled out of Detroit Sunday after getting belted around for what seemed an interminable period but only was 2 hours 50 minutes and losing to the Tigers, 13-6.

The Detroit victory gave the Tigers the series 3-1 and about took apart all that was left of the failing Angel pitching staff. The 13 runs gave the Tigers an even 32 for the three games.

It was the second time in the series the Tigers had picked up 13 runs, they won 13-4 on Friday night, and also marked the second time in the same period they had a seven-run inning.

The unhappy frame Sunday was the third and Detroit changed the complexion of a 0-0 game by picking up the runs. However, only two were earned. The big blow of the inning was Jake Wood's inside the park home run.

During the game Al Kaline, Dick Brown and Bill Bruton also rammed homers for the Tigers. Lee Thomas hit his second of the year and Bob Rodgers his first for Los Angeles.

Possibly the one ray of hope to come out of the series with Detroit was the hitting of tiny Albie Pearson. The 5-foot-6 Angel Sunday came up within one hit of the modern American League record for the most long hits in a three game series.

He banged three successive doubles, giving him six doubles and one triple in the three games and raising his average to a decent .297 after entering the first game batting only .230.

Righthander Phil Regan got credit for his first victory over the season against two losses, although needing help from Hank Aguirre. Rookie Dean Chance unluckily was in the game when Detroit scored seven times and left with a 0-2 record.

Tennis Tips

By DAVID GILLAM

The pomp and circumstance that surrounds a tennis match is as important to the game as the etiquette that applies to a coronation or an inauguration of a president of the United States. These formal occasions draw crowds in the thousands and yet no one cries out "youse was a lucky bum Queeny" or "Mr. President, we was robbed". Baseball, football and prizefighting are popular spectator sports and there is a prominent place for Leo Durocher, the Sunday morning quarterback and an easy shave with Gillette Blades. Tennis is a participation sport and the gallery is expected to conduct themselves as if they were one of the competitors.

One tennis impresario suggested that tennis fans should boo the players, heckle the referee or throw chewing gum wrappers and tea bags. Not so long ago he was a great champion who realized tennis fans like to watch him play because they were concentrating on every point as if they were in the match with him.

Tennis, golf and bowling are all good participation sports and the spectators thereof should be aware of the curtesy they owe the participants. "Nice shot", "sorry" and "good try" are as much a part of tennis as "take it off" at a burlesque show. . . .

Roberts Sets DVL Dash Mark

INDIO — Palm Springs high school sprinter Ray Roberts set a new record in the 100-yard dash here in the DVL preliminaries when he scampered over the century in 10 seconds flat.

Eight other league marks fell by the way-side as eight were allowed to qualify in the running event and six in the field events.

Willie Harris, of Coachella Valley, established two new records in the running of the hurdles. He cleared the standards in the high hurdles in 15 seconds flat and then adde a new mark in the low hurdles when he ran the 180-yards in 20.4 which broke the old DVL record of 21.2.

The league finals will be staged here this Friday night under the lights.
